

2015 United States Mint Annual Uncirculated Dollar Coin Set Available on June 16

June 9, 2015

WASHINGTON — Sales will open for the 2015 United States Mint Annual Uncirculated Dollar Coin Set (product code XA7) on June 16 at noon Eastern Daylight Time (EDT).

The set is priced at $46.95 and contains the following six uncirculated $1 coins in production this year:

* Four Presidential $1 Coins

Struck at the United States Mint at Philadelphia, the obverses (heads sides) of these coins have the images of Harry S. Truman, Dwight D. Eisenhower, John F. Kennedy, and Lyndon B. Johnson, while their reverses (tails sides) have a striking rendition of the Statue of Liberty.

* One Native American $1 Coin

This coin was struck at the United States Mint at Denver. Its reverse depicts a Mohawk ironworker reaching for an I-beam that is swinging into position, rivets on the left and right side of the border, and a high elevation view of the city skyline in the background. The coin's obverse continues to feature the image of Sacagawea.

* One American Eagle Silver Coin

This obverse of this coin depicts Adolph Weinman's image of Walking Liberty, and the reverse features a heraldic eagle with shield, an olive branch in the right talon, and arrows in the left on the reverse. The American Eagle Silver Coin is struck using a .999 fine silver blank and bears the "W" mint mark, indicating its production at the United States Mint at West Point.

About the United States Mint

The United States Mint was created by Congress in 1792 and became part of the Department of the Treasury in 1873. It is the nation's sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage and is responsible for producing circulating coinage for the nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces numismatic products, including proof, uncirculated, and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver and gold bullion coins. The United States Mint's numismatic programs are self-sustaining and operate at no cost to taxpayers.

Note: To ensure that all members of the public have fair and equal access to United States Mint products, orders placed prior to the official on-sale date and time of June 16, 2015, at noon EDT, shall not be deemed accepted by the United States Mint and will not be honored.
